

IRISH PLANNING INSTITUTE

Bye-Laws

Bye-Law no. 3: Membership Bye-Laws

Glossary

Accredited Course: an undergraduate or postgraduate course in planning that has been received full accreditation from the Irish Planning Institute in accordance with the Institute's Educational Guidelines.

IPI CPD credits: This is Continuing Professional Development in line with the Institute's CPD policy. Most CPD activities attract one credit per hour of learning unless specified otherwise by the Irish Planning Institute. CPD must be appropriately certified to be eligible for consideration as part of a membership application, meaning that, for example, self-directed learning such as informal learning or structured reading of planning and related planning publications may not be eligible. The Institute may certify events, programmes and courses delivered in an appropriate HEI or elsewhere as providing specified CPD credits addressing specific core competencies.

Post qualification experience: Planning experience gained by the applicant, after completing their planning qualification, working in a public, private, semi state or academic role.

1.0 Introduction

1.1 Applications for membership of the Institute shall be submitted to the Membership Committee. The application for membership shall take the form prescribed on www.ipi.ie. Applications not in the format prescribed therein may be returned to the applicant by the Institute's executive staff and will not be considered by the Membership Committee.

1.2 The Membership Committee shall make recommendations on such applications to the Board of Directors. The Membership Committee shall meet not less than the minimum time required for the circulation of papers in advance of the next meeting of the Board of Directors of the Institute and shall provide the Board with a list of candidates recommended for membership of the Institute. The Membership Committee will also make recommendations for the refusal of applications which do not meet the requirements as set out in this Bye-Law.

2.0 Student Membership

2.1 Persons engaged in a programme of formal study leading to a fully accredited planning qualification / degree from a Higher Education Institution, which meets the educational requirements of the Institute, are eligible for student membership of the Institute. Any person who is elected as a Student Member and who thereafter obtains the necessary qualification to be eligible for Graduate membership shall cease to be a student member and may make an application for Graduate membership as required by the Institute.

3.0 Graduate and Qualifying Membership

3.1 There are a number of pathways to Registered Membership of the Irish Planning Institute. Some of these, which apply principally to graduates, are outlined below.

- Graduate Membership
- Qualifying Membership EU/EEA (Including Northern Ireland)
- Qualifying Membership International
- Long-Standing Practitioner Pathway

3.2 Applicants seeking Registered Membership of the Institute should review this Bye-law and determine the membership pathway that is applicable to their circumstances.

3.3 While Graduate Members will not be required to obtain additional learning, because their courses are fully accredited by the Institute, Qualifying Members EU/EEA and Qualifying Members International will be required to complete additional learning which addresses the core competencies set out in the current version of the Institute's Educational Guidelines. Applicants holding planning qualifications which are partially accredited by the Institute will be required to demonstrate, by way of additional academic study / micro-credentials, how they have addressed any core-competency deficits in the planning qualification which they have attained. For example, if there is deficit in respect of Core Competency 6 "Planning Instruments (The Political, Legal and Institutional Contexts of Planning)" in the qualification that they have attained, the Applicant can address this deficit by completing a further programme of academic study in planning law.

3.4 Those applicants seeking to rely on additional academic study/micro-credentials will be required to provide details of such study, including evidence from the HEI providing such courses of the applicant's completion of the relevant course, and also details of the content of such course. In making its recommendation to the Council of the Institute, the Membership Committee will need to be satisfied by the Applicant that the courses that they have completed, address the core competencies set out in the Institute's Education Guidelines.

Graduate Membership

3.6 This pathway toward Registered Membership is open to graduates who have completed a National Framework of Qualifications Level 8 / Level 9 (or equivalent) degree in planning that is fully accredited by the Institute.

3.7 Graduate members will be required to undertake 20 recognised and certified IPI CPD credits per year and complete a minimum of two years' satisfactory post qualification work in a planning role to be eligible to apply for Registered Membership of the Institute.

Qualifying Member EU/EEA (including Northern Ireland)

3.8 This pathway toward Registered Membership is open to graduates who have completed a National Framework of Qualifications Level 8 / Level 9 (or equivalent) degree in planning which is not fully accredited by the Institute and which was obtained within the European Union/European Economic Area or Northern Ireland, and is at a level which is not equivalent, as defined under Article 11(d) of EU Directive 2005/36/EC, to the planning qualifications or degrees that are fully accredited by the Institute.

3.9 Qualifying Member EU/EEA applicants will be required to undertake 50 recognised and certified IPI CPD credits which addresses the core competencies as set out in the Institute's Educational Guidelines and also complete a minimum of three years post qualification experience in a planning role within the Republic of Ireland and/or Northern Ireland or such experience which may have a direct relevance to the practice of planning in those jurisdictions to be eligible to apply for Registered Membership of the Institute.

Qualifying Member International

3.10 This pathway towards Registered Membership is open to graduates who have completed a planning qualification that is equivalent to an Institute fully accredited National Framework of Qualifications Level 8 / Level 9 degree (or equivalent) in planning awarded by an educational institution outside of the European Union/European Economic Area.

3.11 Qualifying Member Non-EU/EEA members will be required to undertake 50 recognised and certified IPI CPD credits and also complete a minimum of four years post qualification experience in a planning role within the Republic of Ireland and/or Northern Ireland or such experience which may have a direct relevance to the practice of planning in those jurisdictions to be eligible to apply for Registered Membership of the Institute.

Long Standing Planning Practitioner Pathway

3.12 The Institute has a pathway for membership for applicants who have amassed significant planning experience on the island of Ireland. Applicants, who have attained more than seven years post graduate planning experience and hold a National Framework of Qualifications Level 8 / Level 9 degree in planning, may apply directly for Registered Membership of the Institute. Where the planning experience amassed by an applicant for Registered Membership under this pathway is of sufficient quality, but the Applicant does not hold a planning qualification, the Applicant will be considered for Affiliate Membership of the Institute.

Status of Leave and the Acquisition of IPI CPD Credits

3.13 A Qualifying Member, who for reasons of being on illness, maternity, paternity or parental or carer's or adoptive leave does not practice or ceases to practice as a planner during a IPI CPD year for a period of not less than one week within that year may have their minimum IPI CPD requirement revised downwards in proportion to the number of weeks (out of 52) actually worked in that IPI CPD cycle. Applicants are reminded of the broad diversity of means by which IPI CPD credits can be accumulated which are set out in the Institute's CPD policy.
